1 TO THE DEFENDANTS AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on May 16, 2008 at 1:30 p.m., in the 3 United States District Court, Southern District of California, or as soon as 4 the matter can be heard in front of the Honorable District Court Judge Dana 5 M. Sabraw, plaintiff, Barbara Hubbard (“plaintiff” or “Hubbard”) will move 6 the court for leave to file an amended complaint – a copy of which is 7 attached, as Exhibit A – in order to: 1) dismiss defendant Hometown Buffet, 8 Inc. dba Hometown Buffet #0703 (“Hometown”); 2) dismiss the access 9 barriers related to Hometown (that is, those access barriers located inside the 10 Hometown Buffet restaurant; and, 3) add additional barriers related to the 11 remaining defendant, Lakha Properties - San Diego, LLC (“Lakha”).

12 This motion is based on the pleadings and papers on file in this action, 13 this Notice of Motion, the accompanying memorandum of points and 14 authorities, and the attached [Proposed] Amended Complaint.

15 I. BACKGROUND

16 This is a civil rights action brought under Title III of the Americans
 17 with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) and related California statutes. Plaintiff 18 brought this lawsuit to enjoin the defendants from denying her rights under 19 these federal and state access laws. She seeks (by way of this instant 20 motion) leave to amend her complaint to add additional access barriers and 21 to dismiss one of the defendants.

22 Counsel for Lakha was notified of Hubbard’s desire to amend her
 23 complaint on or about January 22, 2008.

24 II. DISCUSSION

25 A. The Standard

26 The Court is well acquainted with the showing required to amend a
 27 complaint under Rule 15(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
 28 (hereafter “Rule 15(a)”), that is, amendment by leave of Court. The federal

1 rules require that “leave shall be freely given when justice so requires.” Rule
2 15(a). Leave to amend pleadings should be freely given unless the opposing 3 party makes a showing of undue prejudice, bad faith or a dilatory motive on 4 the part of the moving party. See Forman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182
5 (1962); Martinez v. Newport Beach City, 125 F.3d 777, 785 (9th Cir. 1997).
6 The policy of granting leave to amend under Rule 15(a) is to be applied with 7 “extreme liberality.” Eminence Capital, LLC v. Aspeon, Inc., 316 F.3d 1048,
8 1051 (9th Cir. 2003).

9 Thus, while “leave to amend should not be granted automatically,” the 10 circumstances and/or facts under which a Rule 15(a) request for leave to 11 amend can be denied are limited. Ynclan v. Dept. of the Air Force, 943 F.2d
12 1388, 1391 (5th Cir. 1991).

13 B. The Request to Amend

14 1. Dismissal of Hometown & Related Access Barriers

15 As this Court is aware, defendant Hometown has declared bankruptcy.
16 Cognizant that this more than likely means that the subject restaurant will be 17 closing its doors, plaintiff Barbara Hubbard seeks to amend her original 18 complaint in order to dismiss this defendant. She also seeks to dismiss all 19 alleged access barriers relating to the inside of the subject Hometown Buffet 20 restaurant.

21 There would be no prejudice to Hometown to dismiss it (and the 22 related barriers) from the case, and there has been no bad faith on the part of 23 Hubbard as she named Hometown as a defendant prior to its declaring
24 bankruptcy. Likewise, there is no prejudice to the remaining defendant
25 (Lakha) by dismissing Hometown.

26 Therefore, Hubbard respectfully requests that this Court allow her to 27 amend the complaint to dismiss Hometown, and the access barriers related to 28 this defendant’s restaurant.

1 2. Request to Add Further Barriers Relating to Defendant Lakha

2 Hubbard also seeks to amend her complaint in order to add new 3 barriers relating to Lakha, which were discovered after the filing of her
4 complaint. Judicial economy warrants having these barriers adjudicated
5 with the others at the same time, as the alternative is to have Hubbard file a 6 second lawsuit, and relating that second lawsuit to this instant matter.
7 Furthermore, by allowing Hubbard to amend her complaint to add these 8 additional allegations of access barriers, Lakha will receive proper and 9 timely notice.

10 This request is fully in line with a recent Ninth Circuit decision, and,
11 indeed, is actually mandated by this recent decision. In Pickern v. Pier 1
12 Imports (US), Inc., 457 F.3d 963 (9th Cir. 2006), the Ninth Circuit grappled 13 with the question of whether a defendant had adequate notice of new 14 allegations of ADA violations raised for the first time by plaintiff Pickern in 15 her opposition to defendant's motion for summary judgment. See id., at 965.
16 The Court, agreeing with district court below, ruled that such new 17 allegations, unless added to the complaint by way of a timely motion to 18 amend, could not be included in the lawsuit, and Pickern therefore had no
19 standing to challenge them. See Pickern, at 968-69. Implicit in the Court's 20 reasoning is the need to provide adequate notice to the defendant of all the 21 ADA violations such that the defendant can thereafter prepare an adequate 22 defense. See id.

23 Such is the exact case here. Following the Ninth Circuit's
24 holding in the Pickern v. Pier 1 case, plaintiff Hubbard seeks to amend her 25 complaint to add new allegations of ADA violations that have been 26 discovered since the filing of her complaint, and of which she has now either 27 personally encountered or has personal knowledge of. Allowing such an 28 amendment will provide adequate notice of these new ADA violations to

1 Lakha, and allow it to prepare a defense based on all allegations of ADA 2 violations.

3 As with Hubbard's request to dismiss Hometown, the request to add
4 allegations of additional access barriers via an amendment to her original 5 complaint presents no prejudice to Lakha, and is not made in bad faith or as 6 part of some sort of dilatory motive. Furthermore, as explained above, this 7 amendment is actually required by the Ninth Circuit.

8 In summary, Hubbard requests that this Court allow her to amend her 9 complaint as described supra, and as allowed by Rule 15(a).

10 III. CONCLUSION

11 Accordingly, plaintiff requests the Court GRANT an order permitting 12 her to immediately amend her complaint to add newly identified barriers, 13 and dismiss defendant Home Town Buffet, Inc. (and remove from the 14 complaint related to that defendant), as shown in Exhibit A.
